INFLUENCE YOUR WORLD: LEADING IN THE SPOTLIGHT

This highly-interactive program guides you to build your influence and high-profile presence. You'll learn the three habits of influential leaders and discover how to apply them to your world, regardless of the conditions. As a result, even the most difficult people will trust your judgment, respect your opinions, and willingly commit to your strategies and ideas. You'll discover how to:

- Connect so that others are open to hearing your ideas, even if they disagree.
- Convey even the most complex information simply, without dumbing it down.
- Convince others to trust your judgment, so they willingly take action.
- Send purposeful signals that align your intention with your impact.
- Influence the narcissistic and passive-aggressive people in your life.
