LEADERS OUGHT TO KNOW: EARNING THE RIGHT TO BE HEARD

Can't seem to earn the respect of decision makers when communicating new ideas and strategies, or when pitching projects and recommendations? Frustrating, right? Unnecessary - yes!

Too many otherwise capable leaders simply have not learned or don't practice the processes proven to capture the imagination, attention and respect of decision makers.

In this fast-paced, practical workshop, you'll be armed with time-tested information, tools and techniques preparing you to not only "get what you want," but to also "earn the right to be heard" by those with decision making authority.

Phillip Van Hooser, MBA, CSP, CPAE

From FORTUNE 500 manufacturing, community banking, and boardroom leadership, Phillip Van Hooser's experience equips and inspires emerging and experienced leaders with top U.S. companies like ExxonMobil, Crocs, and AmeriGas. Valued for his practical, plainspoken leadership approach, Phil is a Hall of Fame speaker and author. His latest book, Leaders Ought To Know: 11 Ground Rules for Common Sense Leadership, is a must-read for leaders feeling the pressure to perform.
